The Organizer

- The Organizer lets you group your PDF files into collections and favorites. You can also use it to easily print, combine and share PDFs.
- To Open the Organizer: Select File → Organizer → Open Organizer from the menu.
- The Categories pane lists the files you have opened recently (History) and gives you easy access to the files stored on your computer and collections of files that you create.
- To Add a File to a Collection: Right-click the collection you want to add a file to and select Add Files from the contextual menu.
- The Files pane lists all files contained in the category you select in the Categories pane. Click a file to preview it in the Pages pane.
- The Pages pane lets you browse through your documents page-by-page without having to open the document.

The Acrobat Toolbar and Basic Commands

- To Convert an Existing File to PDF: Click Create PDF on the Tasks Toolbar and select From File from the menu. Find and select the file you want to convert and click Open.
- To Create a New, Blank PDF: Select File → Create PDF From Blank Page from the menu.
- To Create a PDF from Multiple Files: Click Combine Files on the Tasks Toolbar and select Add Files from the menu. Select the files you want to combine and click Add Files.
- To Open a PDF: Click the Open button on the File Toolbar.
- To Navigate a PDF: Click the Previous Page or Next Page button on the Page Navigation Toolbar, or enter the desired page number in the Current Page box.
