

UPWARD BOUND PROGRAM

What is Upward Bound?

Upward Bound is a year-round program designed to prepare high-school students for college. Students can earn a monthly stipend!

Who Can Enroll?

Cleveland Metropolitan School District students in 9th, 10th and 11th grade at Glenville, East Technical, John Hay and John Marshall high schools.

What Services Does Upward Bound Provide?

Academic-Enrichment Services

- After-school assistance in core academic subjects (English, math and science)
- Preparation for college-entrance exams
- Preparation for Ohio State Test (OST)

College Visits

- To public and private colleges and universities. In 2019-2020, we visited
- Tri-C Western Campus, Tiffin State University, Terra State University and Cleveland State University.

Saturday Seminars

- Monthly programs on special topics such as the college experience, Hip-Hop Yoga, scholarship and FAFSA assistance and career exploration.

How to Enroll

- Visit our website at: www.tri-c.edu/trio-programs/upward-bound/index.html
- Call: 216-987-4958
- Email: upwardbound@tri-c.edu

Six-Week Summer Enrichment Institute

- Classes in English, math, science and a foreign language
- Career-Exploration Activities
- Work Study Program
- Cultural Experiences

Eight-Week Summer Bridge Program for Graduating Seniors: Up to Two Tri-C Classes for Free; Transferable College Credits; Weekly Advising

"The objective of education is to prepare the young to educate themselves throughout their lives."

- Robert Maynard Hutchins

Cuyahoga Community College
2900 Community College Avenue

Student Experiences

Wearing safety gear, Upward Bound students tour Cleveland's water treatment plant.

Upward Bound Students present on bullying at a Study Skills Workshop.

Upward Bound students at the Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History

A brave student takes the challenge to stack and unstack cups during Winter Retreat.

An Upward Bound student learns patient care by participating in the Cuyahoga Community College STNA program.

Upward Bound students during a visit to Wayne State University in Michigan during the summer trip.