Dear John Marshall, Civic and Business Leadership, Parents,

During this time, as we are working remotely to educate students, If you are in need of assistance I am still available to help.

I am the school's Family Support Specialist which means I can help link you to any resources you may need, such as food, clothing, housing, legal, medical or mental health services. I am here to support students and families in any way that I can. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any request that you have.

Below are community resources that are available to you. If you need immediate assistance, remember to contact 2-1-1 first call for help. They can link you to resources close to your home.
