

✓ Know the Hybrid Plan CEO Eric Gordon detailed the Hybrid Reopening Plan in an email, phone and video message sent to all families on February 19. Click here to watch and share the information with your child.

✓ Update Your Contact Information All parents should have a current and accurate email address, home/cell phone numbers and home address on file at your child's school for communication and emergencies.

✓ Read your Assignment Mailer Back-to-School Mailers will reach homes the week of February 22 and will include your child's school and transportation assignment along with information about the Hybrid Learning options.

✓ Review Your Child's School Assignment Both you and your child should feel comfortable with his/her Hybrid Learning assignment. The Hybrid and Remote options are described on the mailer and detailed in a comparison chart on the CMSD website. Families who want to remain in Remote Learning can do so by calling 216.838.3675 to speak with an enrollment specialist.

✓ Prepare for Hybrid Learning Based on your child's assignment, students will attend school 2 or 4 days per week. Plan together how to schedule your time on In-Person and Remote Learning days. Watch the Video Tour of what school will look like with your child.

✓ Reinforce Safety Precautions Review the new rules for bus safety and the health and safety protocols. Monitor your child's health before he/she boards the bus or heads to school. If he/she shows signs of illness or has a temperature 100.4 degrees or above, keep your child home.

✓ Embrace the Change It's been nearly a year since the lives of Cleveland's families were upended by the COVID-19 pandemic. CMSD's students and families have adapted admirably to those changes, and have shown remarkable strength and resilience during the worst of times. Improving health trends, the increasing availability of vaccines and our transition from Remote to Hybrid Learning are signs of hope that we can focus on, as we get our students back to school and on track for success.
