

Family School Compact School Year 2021-22

Orchard, scholars participating in the Title I, Part A program, and their families, agree that this compact outline how the family, the entire school staff and the scholar will share the responsibility for improved scholar academic achievement as well as describe how the school and families will build and develop a partnership that will help scholars achieve the state's high standards.

School Goals

Parent Teacher conferences will be held quarterly in accordance with district guidelines as well as by request of a parent at a time convenient to them.

School will provide individualized learning opportunities for all students and supports for families to support their kids.

School will provide communications home regarding progress twice quarterly with progress reports.

Teachers, Families, Scholars – Together for Success

The Classroom

Families can volunteer to support in the classroom to support instruction or field trips or other ways that are mutually beneficial.

Teachers will communicate home with families opportunities through seesaw and schoology as well as text and emails.

Parents will have accounts for schoology for two way communication.

At Home

Families can support by:

- Monitoring attendance (virtual and in person)
- Consistently reviewing school website and social media
- Creating a school work space at home
- Making sure that homework is completed
- Promoting positive use of scholar's extracurricular time
- Staying informed about my scholar's education and communication with the school by promptly reading

Scholars

Scholars should do their homework every day and ask for help when needed.

Read at least 30 minutes every day outside of school time and participate in asynchronous learning opportunities

Attend and participate in virtual and in person instruction and use individualized learning pathways like e-spark

Take care of and be responsible for any technology needed to stay fully engaged in virtual instruction.

Give to parents or the adults responsible for scholar welfare all notices and information received from school every day.
