

EQUITY, DIVERSITY, INCLUSION

About National Hispanic Heritage Month

Each year, Americans observe National Hispanic Heritage Month from September 15 to October 15, by celebrating the histories, cultures, and contributions of American citizens whose ancestors came from Spain, Mexico, the Caribbean and Central and South America.

The observation started in 1968 as Hispanic Heritage Week under President Lyndon Johnson and was expanded by President Ronald Reagan in 1988 to cover a 30-day period starting on September 15 and ending on October 15. It was enacted into law on August 17, 1988, on the approval of Public Law 100-402.

The day of September 15 is significant because it is the anniversary of independence for Latin American countries Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, and Nicaragua. In addition, Mexico and Chile celebrate their independence days on September 16 and September 18, respectively. Also, Columbus Day or Día de la Raza, which is October 12, falls within this 30 day period.

Hispanic Heritage Month provides an additional opportunity to explore the incredible impact Latinas and Latinos have had on the United States for generations. The Latino presence in America spans centuries, predating Spain's colonization of what is now part of the United States, and they have been an integral part of shaping our nation since the Revolutionary War. Through the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo and the Treaty of Paris that followed the Mexican-American and Spanish-American wars, the United States gained territories in the Southwest and Puerto Rico. This incorporated the people of this area into the United States and further expanded the presence of Hispanic Americans.

Today, the Latino population in the United States today is over 60 million, according to the U.S. Census Bureau. This makes up 18.9% of the total population and is the largest racial or ethnic group. Latinos continue to help fuel our economy and enrich our nation as entrepreneurs, athletes, artists, entertainers, scientists, public servants, and much more.

Thank you for leading this daunting, yet very rewarding experience with our students. A testament that you have a genuine love for "adventure", is an understatement. We appreciate you!

On College and Career Readiness

Polaris Career Center spoke to students interested in healthcare, cosmetology, welding and other careers today. It was wonderful to hear our seniors from last year are excelling in their cosmetology, dental assistant and HVAC programs!

At Kent State University — Student dressed for success and learning how they can make a difference in their community during visit to Kent State. Focused on learning about the Latino population and how people of color make an impact all over the world.

THIS IS A PORTRAIT OF A GRADUATE!

Cleveland Ink ran poetry workshops inspired by the best-selling author Elizabeth Acevedo with our students. Next week students will have the opportunity to meet with the author.

Thank you Elia Enid Burgos for assisting my students to register to vote!
For teaching them the process of voting step by Step! 🇺🇸

Students taking action, beautification efforts to get Roberto Clemente Park homerun ready!

Students helped pack and sort tons of clothes for the young kids supported by Providence house! Taking action #service
