Recommendation: Merge Adlai Stevenson with Whitney Young

Overview of School Action

Merging Stevenson with Whitney Young will benefit both schools through a higher-quality student experience, including additional courses beyond art, music, and PE – along with expanded sports

Adlai E. Stevenson (Stevenson)

- Enrollment at Stevenson is unsustainably low and declining, limiting the school's ability to offer a robust student experience
- There are available seats in the region that are in good condition buildings and will allow for a higher-quality student experience
- Specifically, students will have a reserved seat at Whitney Young, a school with a higher star rating (2.5 stars compared to Stevenson's 2 stars) housed in a good condition building

Whitney M. Young Leadership (Whitney Young)

- Whitney Young is in a good condition building with a need for greater enrollment to sustainably offer more opportunities for students
- Whitney Young will continue to serve students in its current location, welcoming students from Stevenson

Looking Ahead

Transitioning school

Stevenson students in grades K-7 have a reserved seat at Whitney Young and first priority for available seats at all other schools during the School Choice Process.

Welcoming school

Whitney Young students in grades K-7 do not need to participate in School Choice to remain at their current school.

School choice

Families can use the CMSD School Finder and School Choice Book to better understand their options starting in December.

School Choice will launch in January and run through the end of February.

Leadership

Principals for the 2026-27 school year will be appointed in December.

Staff

Staff assignments will be confirmed in Spring 2026, following the School Choice process.

School staff teams will be merged in alignment with our contractual obligations, enrollment, and the needs of the merged student community.

School community

Students, families, and staff will have opportunities to connect and collaborate around the future of the unified school community over the course of the spring and summer before the start of the 2026-27 school year.

All current 8th graders across CMSD will continue to be supported in making a high school choice.

Special education single classrooms will still be offered at multiple schools in every region. Families whose children are in these specialized classrooms will get additional outreach and support to enroll.
