Teachers, Families, Scholars - Together for Success

The Classroom

- We welcome parents and community members to volunteer, participate and observe in educational instruction and activities. The school will adhere to the CMSD Volunteer Guidelines and Registration found at <https://www.clevelandmetroschools.org/volunteer>
- We prescribe to the belief that with all good intentions, we will inform parents and families of educational practices and scholar progress through interim/progress reports, report cards, parent-teacher conferences, and direct messages as and when needed.
- Involve parents in the planning, review, and improvement of the school's parental involvement policy, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way
- Maintaining a consistent two-way communication between the school and home is vitally important. Staff will provide appropriate and frequent messaging through a variety of methods, and respectfully request the family respond where applicable and update the school if any contact information has changed.

Families

- Encourage and ensure your student(s) attend school DAILY and ON TIME
- Progress monitor and support a scholar's online instruction
- Make sure students' complete homework every week and assist them with their homework
- Attend at least 3 school scheduled activities with your student including Parent Teacher Conferences
- Serving, to the extent possible, on parent support committees.
- Provide input/feedback to improve school environment and culture
- Communicate with your student's teacher
- Promoting positive use of my child's extracurricular time
- Staying informed about my child's education and communicating with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district either received by my child or by mail and responding as appropriate.

Hornets' Nest Scholar
