

Write the area of the right-angled triangle in the boxes below. You may need a calculator. One has been done for you.

area = 25 cm²

area =

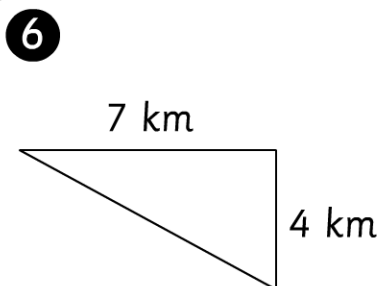

area =

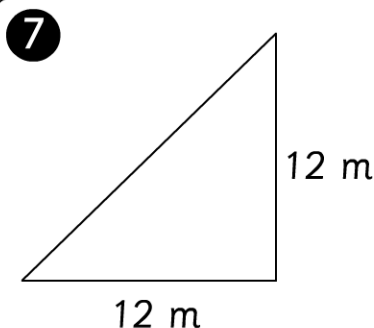

area =

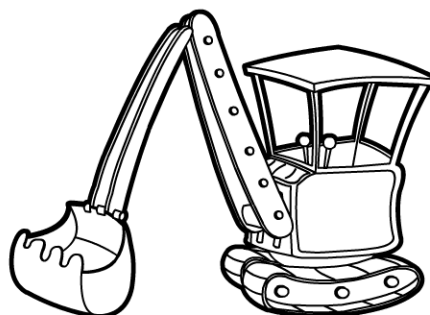

area =

area =

area =

Now draw your own right-angled triangle on the back of the sheet. Label the lengths of the base and height. Then ask a friend to calculate the area.