

Happy Summer! Attached, you will find several resources that will help you engage in fun learning opportunities throughout the summer. Families will receive interactive tools and learning supports throughout the summer (see below and attached). We encourage you to use your discretion and choose from the many options to plan and engage in fun activities that meet your family's needs.

Online Tools:

Please use the online tools shared (some may be accessed through Clever and some may be accessed using free accounts set up by you) if you have Internet access and digital devices available to you. These resources are optional and aligned to the grade level expectations. Practice will help to prepare your child for learning during the next school year. Please visit: <https://www.clevelandmetroschools.org/summerlearning> for more information as it is shared.

Text and Learning Resources:

PK-5 students are encouraged to continue to use the many resources that have been distributed during the spring and summer. Students should have materials shared in the learning kits that were distributed through meal sites. Summer reading books and book lists are being provided throughout the summer as well. Summer Reading activity kits are being sent directly to homes in the beginning of June. In addition to the books distributed at the meal sites, each PK-5 student will receive a pack of 3 books with activity sheets in the mail at the beginning of June. All PK-8 students will also receive a copy of the book entitled, Escape from Mr. Lemoncello's Library. We will use this book to engage in One Book, One District strategies throughout the summer. There will be video read alouds posted and shared and activities that align to the book. The book can be read independently or aloud as age appropriate.

Adult Support:

Please use your judgment to choose activities that are meaningful and appropriate for your use with your children. It is suggested that support may be provided by an adult or older child as needed.

Photos and Journals:

We encourage you to take photos and create photo journals throughout the summer to document the learning and fun activities that you experience together.

Summer Learning on CMSD Website:

The CMSD website will be updated weekly with additional links to learning materials and additional print resources that may be used to continue to practice learned skills. There will be Reading and Math activity sheets added weekly along with updated information aligned to this work.

The Cuyahoga County Public Library:

Once the library opens, there will be engaging activities that align to our theme of learning and reading all summer. Be sure to visit your local library for more information about fun opportunities.

Visit the Cleveland Museum of Art virtually and look at the work of African-American artists.  https://www.clevelandart.org/art/collection/search?i=1&amp;filter-artists-african-american=1	Cuyahoga Valley National Park is a great place to visit:  https://www.nps.gov/articles/000/junior-ranger-jr-orioles.htm	Grocery Store: As you shop with a parent keep a running estimate of how much the cost will be for everything. Compare your estimate to the actual cost. Were you close?	Create a video of yourself talking about the book you are reading. Tell three reasons someone should read your book.	Visit the Rock and Roll hall of Fame and learn about Little Richard  https://www.rockhall.com/inductees/little-richard
Choose an object that you see outside and create a riddle. Ask a family member to solve it. Example: I have a seat and two chains, one on each side. When a child sits on me they move back and forth to make me go. What am I?	Visit Cleveland Museum of Art's virtual 3D gallery  https://www.clevelandart.org/art/collection/search?i=4&amp;only-in-3d=1	Ohio. Find it Here. Let's take a virtual field trip to Cedar Point! Grab a friend and let's ride the rollercoasters! Are you brave? Let's Go!  https://www.cedarpoint.com/play/rides-coasters	Cuyahoga Valley National Park: Imagine if you were a Baltimore oriole, you would be bright orange with a black head and wings. You would have a white stripe on each wing. If you were a female, your body would be orange-yellow and your head an olive yellow. Females are expert weavers. You would hang your nest on a tree branch.	Scavenger Hunt: Be the first to find the answers: How many nickels in a dollar? How many zeros are in one million? How old will you be in 2050? Would you rather have $100 or 350 quarters? How many stacked pennies make an inch? What do all the numbers on a computer keyboard add up to?
You are the DJ! Make a play list for a birthday party, graduation party, wedding—any occasion you want!	Make a Freedom Kite          Use freedom colors – red, white or blue          How to Make a Freedom Kite  https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dismSOx3q0g	Subtraction to Zero: Be the first player to reach zero from a designated number such as 25, 50 or 100. All players write down the number at the top of their paper. Take turns rolling a die, or dice, and subtract that number with each turn.	Create any original work of art with any materials you choose (paint, pencil, photography, video) inspired by work you liked at the Cleveland Museum of Art and share with family.	Go outdoors where plenty of sidewalk space exists. Lay on the sidewalk and have a family member trace your body outline. Choose a favorite character from a book. Using evidence from the book, write the character's physical features and traits inside &amp; outside of the traced body outline.
Multiplication War: Use playing cards. Throw down two cards. The person who finds the product of the two cards first keeps the pair. The person with the most pairs wins.	Find verbs in the outdoor area you are exploring. Write the verbs in your journal. Then, write an adverb that describes the verb. Write a sentence about what you see that uses the adverb and verb.	Write new lyrics to a favorite song and perform it for your family.	Take a walk around your neighborhood or a park. Search for any bird clues such as nests, feathers, and woodpecker holes. Can you find anything that an oriole might eat or weave into its nests? During late spring or summer, look for sock-like oriole nests in the trees.	Create a "good citizen" poster by drawing and labeling illustrations of how you can help family members at home. Share it with your family. Hang in a place for all to see.

This book takes a heart-wrenching look at history of the Warsaw Ghetto, told by comparing the philosophies of doctor Janusz Derczak, a pediatrician turned-orphanage-director who championed children's rights, and Adolf Hitler, a racist fanatic whose policies led to the murder and manipulation of children.

I'm Not Dying with You Tonight by Kimberly Jones and Gilly Segal. Source FireBooks. 2019. ISBN: 9781728216300. This book is about two high school girls in Atlanta, one black and one white, who must depend on their wits and each other to make it home after fights break out at their school football game and rioting and looting break out in the streets.

In Good Hands: Remarkable Female Politicians from Around the World Who Showed Up, Spoke Out and Made Change by Stephanie Mackendrick. KCP Loft. 2020. ISBN: 9781525300356. This book highlights tools, resources and real-life role models for young women eager to start their own political journeys.

Lawn Boy by Jonathan Evison. Algonquin Books. 21018. ISBN: 9781616202620. For Mike Munoz, a young Chicano living in Washington State, life has been a whole lot of waiting for something to happen. Not too many years out of high school and he is still doing menial work. He's got to be the one to shake things up if he's ever going to change his life. But how? Read the book to find out!

Life Sucks: How to Deal With the Way Life is, Was and Always Will Be Unfair by Michael I. Bennett and Sara Bennett. Illustrated by Bridget Gibson. Penguin Young Readers. 2019. ISBN: 97815247877905. This book gives no-nonsense advice from a father-daughter duo explaining just how much high school is a hormonal, stressful and chaotic storm phase of life. You really can be whoever you want once you figure out who that is, and some adults can be helpful as allies.

Loki: Where Mischievous Lies by Mackenzi Lee. Illustrated by Stephanie Hans. Disney Book Group. 2019. ISBN: 9781368022262. Young Loki longs to be seen as respected and heroic, but he lives in the shadow of his brother Thor. His magic makes others suspect villains; only Amor sees magic as a gift, not a threat.

On the Come Up by Angie Thomas. Harper Collins/Balzer Bray. 2019. ISBN: 9780062498564. Bri follows in the footsteps of her father, who was murdered, and creates a viral rap about a racial injustice at school. As she attempts to deal with the incident and the community's misconceptions, Bri discovers the power of her voice amplified by the support of those around her. This is a significant and powerful novel by the author of The Hate You Give.

The Borden Murders: Lizzie Borden and the Trial of the Century by Sarah Miller. Schwartz & Wade. 2019. ISBN: 9781984892447. This book is an investigation of murders of wealthy and prominent Andrew and Abby Borden. Who are the accused? Mild mannered Lizzie Borden, daughter of Andrew Borden.

The Bridge Home by Padma Venkatraman. Penguin Young Readers. 2019. ISBN: 9781524738112. This book is about four preteens are abused, neglected and forced into homelessness in India. A tale of survival, this book describes the agonizing choices family and friends must make to protect loved ones.

Tribe: On Homecoming and Belonging by Sebastian Junger. Harper Collins. 2017. ISBN: 9780008168186. Tribe explores what we can learn from tribal societies about loyalty, belonging, and the eternal human quest for meaning. It explains the irony that for many veterans as well as civilians - war feels better than peace, adversity can turn out to be a blessing, and disasters are sometimes remembered more fondly than weddings or tropical vacations.
