

Family School Compact School Year 2024-2025

Cleveland High School for Digital Arts, scholars participating in the Title I, Part A program, and their families, agree that this compact outline how the family the entire school staff and the scholar will share the responsibility for improved scholar academic achievement as well as describe how the school and families will build and develop a partnership that will help scholars achieve the state's high standards.

School Goals

The Media Center is available to families! Information on programs and available times will be emailed to families throughout the year.

The monthly school newsletter will highlight school accomplishments, inform parents of upcoming events and assessments and ways in which they can partner with the school.

Teachers, Families, Scholars – Together for Success

The Classroom

[Describe when, where, and how parents and families may volunteer, participate, and observe in educational instruction and activities.]

[Describe how teachers will inform parents and families of educational practices and scholar progress]

[Describe how teachers will establish and maintain consistent two-way communication.]

At Home

[Describe the ways in which parents and families will support their scholar's learning, such as:

- Monitoring attendance (virtual and in person)
- Consistently reviewing school website
- Creating a school work space at home
- Making sure that homework is completed.
- Promoting positive use of scholar's extracurricular time
- Staying informed about my scholar's education and communication with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district
- Participate in parent teacher conferences

Scholars

[Describe the ways in which scholars will support their academic achievement, such as:

Do homework every day and ask for help when needed.

Read at least 30 minutes every day outside of school time.

Attend and participate in virtual and in person instruction.

Take care of and be responsible for any technology needed to stay fully engaged in virtual instruction.

Give to parents or the adults responsible for scholar welfare all notices and information received from school every day.
