

Cleveland Metropolitan School District Attendance Communication Program for the 2022-2023 School Year

Attending school every day possible helps students learn and stay on track.

- This year, you may receive mailed letters from your school about your student's attendance.
- To ensure you receive these updates, please contact your school to make sure your contact information is up to date.

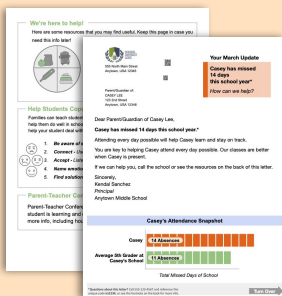

If you need attendance support or have questions about these communications, we're here to help: call 216-242-1849 to connect to our Family Support Team.
