

Family School Compact School Year 2023 - 2024

John Marshall School of Civic & Business Leadership scholars participating in the Title I, Part A program, and their families, agree that this compact outline how the family, the entire school staff and the scholar will share the responsibility for improved scholar academic achievement as well as describe how the school and families will build and develop a partnership that will help scholars achieve the state's high standards.

School Goals

John Marshall School of Civic & Business Leadership will:

- Provide quality curriculum and instruction that is based on academic mastery standards that include social, emotional, and cultural awareness that embrace and encourage scholar's free expression, questions, and concerns that support a 'whole child' approach to education; and allow space for mistakes.
- Provide a safe and secure environment, including but not limited to COVID 19 safety protocols as directed by the Ohio Department of Health.
- Hold Parent Teacher Conferences three (3) times a school year per the District's guidelines.
- Provide scholars and caregivers with on-going social and emotional supports as they become re-acclimated to in-person learning.
- Provide scholars and caregivers with on-going updates on academic progress via Parent Teacher Conferences, interim progress reports and teacher feedback.

Teachers, Families, Scholars – Together for Success

In the Classroom

Teachers will:

- Provide a respectful classroom
- Provide a classroom that is a safe space for engaged learning
- Provide an inclusive classroom environment regardless of a scholars' abilities or
- Teachers will keep parents/caregivers informed of the scholar's progress via phone calls home via interim grades and phone calls home as needed

At Home

Parents/Caregivers will:

- Monitor scholars' attendance
- Review school's website frequently
- Create a school work space at home
- Support scholars' academic attainment
- Promote positive use of scholar's extracurricular time
- Maintain contact with teachers and/or principals
- Participate in parent teacher conferences
- Read and respond to CMSD emails
- Emphasize the importance of high school completion

Scholars

Scholars will:

- Speak, act and behave in a respectful manner with teachers, staff and students
- Report to school and classes on time
- Take ownership of their own learning by fully participating in classroom instruction and activities
- Arrive at school and to class prepared to learn
- Attempt to complete all classroom assignments
- Ask for help as needed in the area of academic, social, emotional and family supports.
- Commit to be life-long learners with the understanding the learning takes place every day.