VERIFICATION OF EMPLOYMENT ELIGIBILITY

The Board complies with all aspects of the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986. The Board delegates to the Chief Executive Officer the responsibility of establishing procedures to ensure compliance with this Act.

Federal law requires that all employers and employees hired after November 6, 1986, complete an Employment Eligibility Verification Form (Form I-9) provided by the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service. All such employees must provide documents which establish both identity and employment eligibility in order for Form I-9 to be completed and signed by both the employee and the appropriate District official.

The Employment Eligibility Verification Form (Form I-9) must be retained for three years or for one year past the end of the employment of an individual, whichever is longer. Such forms must be made available for inspection to an Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) or Department of Labor (DOL) officer upon request.
