

SCHOOL ADMISSION

District residents who are at least age 5 but under age 22 who do not possess a diploma are entitled to free education in the District's schools. Students who do not legally qualify as residents may be required to pay tuition as established by law and Board policy. A student is considered a resident of the District if he/she resides with a parent whose place of residence is within the boundaries of the District. Children between the ages of 5 through 21 who are in the legal or permanent custody of a person or governmental agency other than their natural or adoptive parents are also entitled to admission in the District's schools if they reside in the District.

New entrants at all grade levels are required to present at the time of enrollment a birth certificate or other document as evidence of birth, a certified copy of any child custody order or decree, written proof of having received or being in the process of receiving required immunizations and copies of the records provided to him/her by the school most recently attended.
