

ADVERTISING AND PROMOTION IN THE SCHOOLS

Notices, advertisements or written matter of a promotional nature shall not be distributed or displayed in any school building or on District property without prior approval of the school principal or other administrative official. In some cases, it may be necessary for the school principal or administrative official to seek the advice of the District Chief Operating Officer or Chief Communications Officer prior to approving the display or distribution of certain materials.

[Adoption date: October 4, 2001]