At my house i see trees turn colors.
i see my family--well half of my family.
i can hear kids outside yelling.
i smell yummy food from my mom cooking in the kitchen for me and my sister.
i see my game in my room all day
everyday.
And i see my TV in the room.
i see my dog.

i see my mom and my sister
all day everyday.
i touch my bed everyday.
i taste yummy candy,
Burgers, hotdogs.
i can hear myself drinking milk, juice, and water.

My home looks like the trees.
Everywhere there are logs. You can smell the scent of wood outdoors and indoors. Dirt tracks are by the back door each day. Evidence of walking back to the barn. You can hear horses snorting and nickering outside in the pasture. 5 greedy peafowl come running for snacks.
Inside the house of logs, there is always the smell of something cooking on the stove. It is cozy and warm, no matter the weather. Peaceful and quiet, my oasis.

lailah

i see outside,
the birds,they flys.
i hear the tv
it's so loud
i think she needs to turn it down.
i smell cake
the cake my mom baked.
touch the door so i could go outside
and explore.
i taste the cake that my mom baked :)
