

Family School Compact School Year 2022-2023

Kenneth W. Clement, scholars participating in the Title I, Part A program, and their families, agree that this compact outline how the family, the entire school staff and the scholar will share the responsibility for improved scholar academic achievement as well as describe how the school and families will build and develop a partnership that will help scholars achieve the state's high standards.

School Goals

Teacher and staff will provide direct instruction utilizing districted chosen curriculum while providing intervention to scholars using researched based strategies.
Conferences will be held according to the district calendar or upon request.
Student achievement and reports will be provided to parents during progress reporting, quarter grade reporting, Literacy and Math nights and at any time a parent may request this information.

Teachers, Families, Scholars – Together for Success

The Classroom

Families may attend our scheduled school events and join our parent committee to engage in educational instruction and activities.

Teachers will inform parents and families of students progress with progress reporting and conferences.

Teachers will establish and maintain communication via email and newsletters.

At Home

- Monitoring attendance
- Consistently reviewing school website
- Creating a school work space at home
- Making sure that homework is completed.
- Promoting positive use of scholar's extracurricular time
- Staying informed about my scholar's education and communication with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school or the school district
- Participate in parent teacher conferences

Do homework every day and ask for help when needed.

Read at least 30 minutes every day outside of school time.

Attend and participate in virtual and in person instruction.

Take care of and be responsible for any technology needed to stay fully engaged in virtual instruction.

Give to parents or the adults responsible for scholar welfare all notices and information received from school every day.